- The first referee provided must be your present or most recent employer, unless you have not been in employment before. If you are not currently working with children but have done so in the past, your second referee must be that employer. Candidates who are invited for interview will be asked in the invitation letter if they require any adjustments to be made to the interview or other selection activities.

Declarations:

This post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. If you are appointed, you will be required to undertake an Enhanced Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) check (previously known as a CRB check). You are required to declare any unspent convictions, cautions, warnings and bind-overs you may have, regardless of how long ago they occurred, as well as any pending criminal proceedings or current police investigations. Having a criminal record will not necessarily prevent you from taking up appointment; this will depend on the nature of the offence(s) and their relevance to the post you are applying for. However, should you not declare any of the above and this is subsequently revealed, e.g. through the DBS check, then this may place your appointment in jeopardy.

Important changes to the law on the disclosure of criminal records information mean that a prospective employer can only ask you to disclose any unspent cautions, convictions, warnings or bindovers, and new filtering rules have been introduced, although these rules will not apply for individuals who have two or more convictions. Guidance and criteria on the filtering rules can be found at the Disclosure and Barring Service website at: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/filtering-rules-for-criminal-record-check-certificates>. Also, because positions in schools are considered to be 'excepted', when your certificate is issued it may contain information on spent convictions that the DBS decides your employer needs to take into account in order to ensure the protection of vulnerable groups, including children. In addition, some specific offences will never be removed from a DBS certificate, such as serious sexual and violent offences. You can view this specified list of offences at: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/dbs-list-of-offences-that-will-never-be-filtered-from-a-criminal-record-check>.

Further guidance on what convictions you must declare and a policy on recruiting ex-offenders are available from the school.

Please answer the following questions:

Do you have any unspent convictions, cautions, warnings or bind-overs and/or are you the subject of a current police investigation or have criminal proceedings pending against you?	YES/NO
Are you on the Children's Barred List (previously List 99 and PoCA list) or have you ever been disqualified from working with children or been subject to any sanctions imposed by a regulatory body (e.g. General Teaching Council, Teaching Agency)?	YES/NO

It is a criminal offence for barred individuals to seek, or to undertake, work with children.

If you have answered 'YES' to either of the above, please provide further details on a separate sheet in a sealed envelope marked 'CONFIDENTIAL'.

Are you currently registered with the DBS Update Service (service only available from 17.06.13)?	YES/NO
